

THE past week has been gay and then since the beginning of the present season. Several large card parties, two or three delightful luncheons, and a dinner or two have kept the gay set going. The outdoor sports are still claiming many of the devotees of society, and the Country club has been well patronized.

The number of weddings has decreased with the opening of the month of May, but a great number are set for the favorite month of June.

The week beginning has a few affairs scheduled for the early days, which will doubtless be added to as the days go by.

This evening Colonel and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will entertain at a dinner complimentary to Senator Kearns.

Mrs. W. W. Riter will entertain at an informal Kensington tomorrow afternoon in honor of Mrs. Willard Young.

A reception will be given in honor of Mrs. Fred Helmuth of New York Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Anna T. Hyde.

Mrs. John D. Spencer will entertain the Sewing club at a Kensington in honor of Mrs. Willard Young on Wednesday.

At the Country Club.

Yesterday was the first real gala day at the Country club, for although the opening took place the 1st of April, the May weather was required to bring an active interest in the outdoor sport. Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes was the hostess of the day and she was assisted in serving tea by Mrs. Jay T. Harris. Delightful music was furnished during the whole afternoon by Held's band. The grounds were well filled with visitors, the friends of the club members, and the place presented a beautiful sight. The only game of the afternoon was the approaching and putting contest, but the afternoon was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

At Luncheon.

Mrs. Walter G. Eiler was the hostess at a most elaborate luncheon given last Thursday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated in three colors, the dining room entirely in red, the drawing room in pink and the hall in yellow. The tables, at which the guests were seated, were shaded in the colors, and the effect was heightened by the use of lace work over the same shades on the cloth. An orchestra in the hall furnished delightful music. The guests were Mrs. Harriette, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Hugh Anderson, Mrs. Fischer, Mrs. W. G. Sharp, Mrs. Sturgis, Mrs. Keith, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. P. Heath, Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. McCutchen, Mrs. Fred, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Nye, Mrs. Flagg, Mrs. Eberly, Mrs. Rykert, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Walker, Mrs.

Coleman, Miss Webber, Miss Young, Miss Murray, Miss Harkness, Miss McCormick, Miss McGrath, Miss Sherman.

Musicals.

The last meeting of the tourist's section of the Ladies' Literary club was made memorable by a most delightful afternoon Wednesday with Mrs. and Miss Neill at their charming rooms in the Dooly block. The lovely spring blossoms were used to adorn the rooms, which were filled with the guests of the hostesses and of the section members.

The afternoon's programme was devoted to a study of the great German composers, and sketches of the lives of Von Weber, Haydn, Beethoven, Schubert, Mendelssohn and Mozart were given.

Interpreting their musical genius, examples of their works were rendered by some of the leading musicians of the town. Mrs. Plummer sang a selection from Haydn's "Creation"; Miss Mary Olive Gray gave Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata"; Mrs. Jack Keith sang Schubert's "Serenade"; Mrs. Peabody and Mrs. Alvah Lewis rendered most beautifully Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream"; Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson sang from Mozart's opera "Figaro"; and, as a final number, Mr. Woodmansee played "Romance" by Jensen, and "Suite" by Brahms.

The paper given by Mrs. Ewing on Mendelssohn was especially enjoyable, but all were rare gems. At the conclusion of the programme tea was served, and a delightfully informal social hour enjoyed. Mrs. Neill was assisted by Mrs. Officer, Miss Neill, Mrs. Jack Keith and Mrs. Taggart.

At Sixty-three.

Although thoroughly informal in all its appointments, the card party given last Monday evening in honor of Mr. Martin Watrous of Seattle was one of the most delightful of the week's events. The hostesses of the affair were Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Albert C. Allen and Mrs. James X. Ferguson. Sixty-three was the game enjoyed by about forty of the younger society set. Prizes were won by Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall, Mrs. Jay T. Harris, Mr. Westcott and Mr. Glendinning. At the conclusion of the game music was enjoyed, solos by Mr. Watrous, Mr. Hamilton Coffin and Mrs. Jack Keith being especially good.

Euchre Party.

Mrs. Charles H. Brink was the hostess at a pleasant evening party Thursday. The rooms, decorated with the spring flowers, were filled with a merry throng of guests, and the game of euchre was enjoyed. The prizes were won by Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall, Mr. D. S. Murray and Dr. E. W. Whitney. The guests of the evening were Colonel and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Causton Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Cross, Dr. and Mrs. Hosmer, Dr. and Mrs. Donohoe, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Root, Dr. and Mrs. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul, Dr. and

Mrs. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Scarff, Mr. and Mrs. Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Eccles, Mr. and Mrs. Pearsall, Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Sheip, Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Miss Nellie Walker, Miss Donohoe, Miss Lowe, Mr. Sharp Walker, Mr. S. E. Milner, and Mr. Frank D. Hobbs.

At Cards.

One of the pleasant events of the past week was the card party given last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Oscar Kent Lewis, at which Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Charles Brink were the hostesses. The spring blossoms were utilized most effectively in the house decoration, great branches of the fragrant apple blossoms adding graceful effects. The tables and score cards were in the lilac shades, and were hand decorated. The first prize, a beautiful hand painted jardiniere, was won by Mrs. Wilbur Flagg; the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. W. F. James, and the prize for the greatest number of lone hands fell to Mrs. S. V. Shelp.

Afternoon at Cards.

Again on Friday afternoon Mrs. Brink entertained at cards. The dainty blossoms of the spring season made the air fragrant with their perfume, and graced the pretty home with their beauty. The game of the afternoon was euchre, and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. Cleaver and Mrs. J. T. Donnellan. The invited guests were Mesdames Tuttle, Evans, Scarff, Kenyon, Harris, Lyon, Genter, King, Miles, Biehus, Black, Brown, Holman, Beattie, Johnson, Brattain, Critzer, Donnellan, Forbes, Fenton, Griswold, Ingraham, Katz, Tripp, Moore, Owen, Parker, White, Weir, Whitney, Wightman, Platt, Reed, A. The rooms were decorated with red carnations and ferns, and the table, shaded with the red lights, presented a pretty sight. Mrs. Price was assisted by Mrs. J. T. Richards and the Misses Renshaw and Howat. The other guests of the afternoon were: Mesdames Dana Smith and Odell, Misses Davis, Merrill, Dern, Elizabeth Dern, Leonard, Miller, Marjorie Miller, Brown, McMillan, Edith Miller, Florence Stevenson and Howat.

The guests, numbering about twenty-four, were seated at small tables, artistically arranged with fragrant apple blossoms. Mrs. Reid was assisted by Mrs. Le Grand Young, Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr and the Misses Young.
